

Greater Houston Chapter

NEWS

RELEASE

3910 KIRBY DRIVE, SUITE 131 • HOUSTON, TX 77098

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Contact: Jennifer Woodruff 713.523-6222
Dennis Winkler 713.259.0195

TURNER INDUSTRIES' BOUDREAUX HEADS LOCAL ABC BOARD

HOUSTON (January 24, 2012)] – Associated Builders and Contractors of Greater Houston Chapter named its 2012 officers and board at the annual inauguration dinner January 11th at the Petroleum Club. ABC Greater Houston membership elected five officers and 28 board members from Greater Houston's industrial and commercial construction businesses, as well as suppliers and associates to the building and construction industry. ABC Greater Houston has 464 member companies.

Dwayne Boudreaux of Turner Industries Group, LLC was elected 2012 chair of the ABC Greater Houston board; Lohn Zylicz of D.E. Harvey Builders, Inc., chair elect; Tim Ricketts of Cajun Constructors, Inc., vice chair; Darlene East of Holes Inc., secretary; and Leonard A. Bedell of Mobil Steel International, Inc., treasurer. Neil Adams of Gilbane Building Company continues to serve on the board as immediate past chair.

Boudreaux challenged the board and general membership during the recent inaugural dinner to get actively involved and continue ABC Greater Houston's success that has established the nationally recognized chapter as the leading commercial and industrial construction association. ABC Greater Houston has increased membership growth 12 consecutive years. "ABC members are some of Houston's safest and most innovative commercial and industrial construction contractors and suppliers," Boudreaux told members.

(more)

ABC Greater Houston Protects Free Market Enterprise (page 2)

“ABC Greater Houston helps me succeed in business by providing me direct contact with companies with which I want to do business,” Boudreaux added. “By being actively engaged in ABC, I have had the opportunity to personally meet with elected and regulatory officials, and educate those leaders about fair regulation and the importance of creating a pro-business environment in Texas.”

Other elected board members are: Mike Abshire, Fugro Consultants, Inc.; Warren Adamson, S&B Engineers & Constructors; Brian Anderson, G.R. Birdwell Construction; Barry Babyak, Austin Industrial, Inc.; Kerry Bennett, ISC Constructors, LLC; Kevin Bordelon, Zachry Industrial, Inc.; Sam Craig, Craig & Heidt, Inc.; Matt Daniel, Skanska USA Building Inc.; Matt Elliott, SpawGlass Construction Corporation; John Golashesky, Turner Industries Group, LLC; Tom Kramer, Manhattan Construction Company; Tad Lewis, McCarthy Building Companies; Mike Holland, Marek Brothers Systems, Inc.; John Marshall, Satterfield & Pontikes Construction Inc.; Joe Mendyk, Turner Construction; James Morris, Jacobs; Jerry Morrow, The Shaw Group; Bob Nussmeier, Baker Concrete Construction, Industrial; Jim Owrey, E. E. Reed Construction, L. P.; Rodney Page, Ref-Chem L.P.; Pat Pollard, Tellepsen Industrial; Wendell Rychlik, W.T. Byler Co.; William Sanchez, Oxford Builders Inc.; Christina Stone, Gaughan, Stone & Thiagarajan; Billy Spies, KBR; Mark Williams, Foster Wheeler USA Corp.; Ronnie Wills, Aggregate Technologies Inc.

About Associated Builders and Contractors of Greater Houston Chapter

ABC Greater Houston is an affiliate of the Associated Builders and Contractors, Inc., a national association that protects free market enterprise and business freedoms of commercial and industrial contractors. ABC offers member training, education and networking. Additionally, ABC and its members support good government and fair and reasonable regulation through active participation in local, state and federal legislation.